

Media regulation must protect diversity of speech. Please protect the right of the governed to have access to different voices so they can distinguish truth from propoganda.